

- 1 J&M's Team
The only live steam locomotive builder exhibiting at the show. John builds a small range of specific prototypes in 1:32 scale. Each locomotive is guaranteed to be unique.
- 2 TMS Models
Supply locomotives, and rolling stock to customers specifications. They also sell preowned models, service Aster locos and build Aster kits.
- 3 John Lythgoe
Nameplates, shed plates, smokebox plates etc for Britannia Class locos and many others, plus adhesives, Miliput and lubricants etc.
- 4 Golden Age Models
A wide range of RTR locomotives and rolling stock in gauge 1.
- 5 Barrett Engineering
Locomotive kits - steam and electric, station accessories, coaches and wagons.
- 6 Kirtley Model Buildings
Builders in gauge 1 scale and others. They also produce a range of items to help you DIY, papers, etched window frames, valances etc.
- 7 SM Models & Prestige Models
SM loco boxes and a range of kits and RTR models from Prestige Models
- 8 Squires Tools
Tools and materials for the modeller.
- 9 Demonstration Table
Building in stone by David Blamire
Token operated point operation by Ralph Bagnall-Wild
(Various times throughout the day)
- 10 Mount Tabor Models
Bring the power and glamour of continental railways to Gauge 1 North.
- 11 Classic Trains
Steam and electric powered locos, ready built rolling stock and their own range of coach kits.
- 12 Slaters Plastikard
Just as the name suggests but a lot more, wheels and wagon kits in 10mm and 1:32, and the new Midland Railway "Kirtley" goods loco.
- 13 Peter Spoerer Model Engineers
Always something of interest here, radio control systems, batteries, lighting, sound modules etc.
- 14 Cromford Designs
Bespoke locomotives and rolling stock in 10mm and 1:32 scales.
- 15 Loco Boxes
Loco and stock cases and loco lifting cradles to move your loco safely onto the track.
- 16 Mercian Models
Etched kits of locomotives, rolling stock and their latest kit, the GWR 14xx 0-4-2 tank of auto-coach operation fame.

Through the double doors to -

- 17 Ieuan Lewis
Card storage boxes for stock and locos and a range of previously owned gauge 1 and related railway items.
- 18 Cliff Barker
Track and track components, scale ballast, loco fuel, and his keyfob control systems for electric and steam locos.
- 19 Moordale with Guisborough (Details overleaf)

Back on the Main Concourse -

- 20 Demonstration Table
Painting, lining and weathering demonstration by Liz Marsden.
- 21 Amberly Services
Tools including BA and Metric taps, dies, fixings, springs, twist drills solder, mini-drill accessories, small electric components.

Toilets are here!

Way through to the Conference Room - stands 33 - 41

- 22 The Finescale Locomotive Company
Build to order a range of quality models of locomotives and rolling stock.

- 23 Walsall Model Industries
Wheel castings and fittings for modellers in gauge 1. They also produce a range of etched brass kits of wagons and locos.
- 24 Bill Hudson Transport Books
One of the most comprehensive railway bookshops in the country stocked with a wide range both new and second-hand.
- 25 Peak Rail
Peak Rail Preservation Group operate a line between Matlock and Rowsley just south of here on the A6.

Island stands

- 26 Aster Hobbies UK
The only UK retailer of Aster Models Inc, the major maker of gauge 1 locomotives in the world.
- 27 Able Boxes and Cases
A range of products to protect and display your locomotives - glass cases, loco transit boxes etc, plus coach seating for your passengers!
- 28 Uncommon Kits and demonstration
As well as selling Slaters range of wheels and kits in gauge 1, there will be demonstrations of model making and the services UK offer to help you achieve your dream model.
- 29 Buxton Model Works
Bespoke, highly detailed, electric locomotives in gauge 1, plus a range of modestly priced wagon overlays.
- 30 Curvilinear by Design
Exquisitely detailed etched brass signal boxes and detailing kits.

Next to Dobson Bridge

- 31 Demonstration Table
Peter Wood demonstrating point building and -
John Evans demonstrating how to fire a Gauge 1 locomotive.
(Various times throughout the day)
- 32 The Gauge 1 Model Railway Association
More popularly known as G1MRA will be selling their range of publications - the premier source of information on modelling in gauge one and recruiting new members.

In the Conference Room

- 33 Gauge 1 Miscellany (Details overleaf).
- 34 Steeple Grange Light Railway
Preserves and runs railway equipment that has been used in works, mines and quarries. They operate an 18 inch gauge line a few miles beyond Matlock, at Steeple Grange - near Wirksworth..
- 36 RPM Model Locomotives
A British made range of electric and RC RTR locomotives of many popular prototypes. Custom finishes a speciality.
- 36 Just the Ticket
Loco kits and parts, materials - brass, BMS, copper, bronze and tools - reamers and drills paint etc.
- 37 Ken West
A range of affordable kits for gauge 1, coaches, bogies and detail parts. Talk to Ken about what you would like to see made available.
- 38 The Gauge One Model Co.
Major RTR suppliers will be exhibiting their live steam 1:32 scale Britannia class locomotive and have some 'exclusive show offers'
- 39 JPL Models & Delta Resins
Provide machining services for scratch builders and have recently teamed up with Delta Resins to produce an electric A4.
- 40 Peter Korzilius
Kits and components for wagon chassis and coach bogies in 10mm and 1:32 scale.
- 41 Fine Scale Brass
Brass built electric locomotives and rolling stock in 1:32 scale. Available in a variety of stages of finish.

The organisers of Gauge 1 North cannot guarantee the appearance of the exhibitors listed.

Descriptions and information are given in good faith.